Tuesdays at 10:30 to 11:30 in the library every other week. A great big thank you to Erin Blett for helping 4th grade out biweekly!!!

4th grade Christian Learning

Memory Verse:

Due Friday, September 13

But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.
Joshua 24:15b

We finished the fall into sin last week and this week we will study Cain and Abel, and the Tower of Babel. We know that God forgives sins through the work of Jesus!

4th Grade Math:

Last week we had our first math test. This week we will be working on word problems, lines, adding and subtracting money, and missing numbers in subtraction. Students are continuing to practice their computation skills.

4th Grade EL:

We will have a spelling test this Friday on the long i sound. We continue to work in our writing folders on how to write a good paragraph. In Shurley, we will learn the punctuation rules. We will read stories about standing up for what is right in our readers.

7/8 EL: In our class last week, we reviewed the Shurley English pronouns. This week in Shurley we will continue reviewing the parts of speech. There will be a test this week. Students will finish their final essay Monday. We read a section of Maya Angelou's autobiography. This week we will analyze a science fiction story.

5/6 EL: We finished "Matthew Henson at the top of the World" in our literature class. Students learned about racism. This week we will finish another nonfiction story about wildfires. We reviewed subject/verb agreement. This week students will review pronouns. There will be a quiz Friday in Shurley. Students will hand in their final essay Monday.

Believe. Belong. Become.

FIELD TRIP: On September 30 the 4-8th graders are going to see a theater production of several short stories! Look for the trip slip!!
